DOORS OF POLICE DEPARTMENT SHUT IN STRIKERS' FACE

Commissioner Curtis Will Not Reinstate Men Who Abandoned Posts

WILL NOT MEET LABOR LEADERS

BOSTON, Sept. 13.—Police Commissioner Curtis shut the doors of the police department in the face of the striking policemen today. He announced he would not reinstate the men who had abandoned their posts and that he would proceed at once to build up a new force.

The commissioner's action followed the striker' acceptance of the suggestion of President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor that they return to work without demanding immediate union recognition but without relinquishing any claims. It found support in an opinion by Attorney General Bruce Hyman who held that striking police officers had made their places vacant and that the commissioner could fill them

The police commissioner refused to meet the labor leaders in a joint conference but sent word that he would talk with them "in my own behalf" on Monday. This was interpreted to mean that he wished to remove any official status from the interview.

The commissioner will recruit his new force, without civil service requirements from veterans of the army or navy.

The commissioner said he had submitted to the mayor recommendations for advances in the salaries of patrolmen and would request a revision of the salaries of officers. The mayor previously had said he favored increased pay

The city, restored to virtually normal conditions under the presence of the state's military forces, was concerned tonight over the immediate future. The threat of a general strike was in the air. The statement of President Gompers in New York that he supposed Commissioner Curtis was "willing to assume the responsibility for the consequences of his action" directed attention to the next move likely to be made by the central labor union. That body will meet tomorrow. If its order of Thursday night has been carried out it will have before it expressions of the attitude toward a general strike taken by most of its constituent unions. Some have declared in favor of a sympathetic strike. With others there has been a disposition to move slowly.

Blames Curtis for Strike.

New York, Sept. 13.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor placed the entire blame for the Boston police strike on Police Commissioner Edwin Curtis in a statement issued tonight.

"The situation in which the policemen found themselves today was provoked and practically forced upon them," said the statement, "by the autocratic action of Police Commissioner Curtis who at any time might have honorably settled the dispute by such action as is naturally expected of a public official in his responsible position."

Mr. Gompers telegraphed Governor Coolridge tonight asking him to take a broad view of the entire situation and give the opportunity for a cool, deliberate consideration when the passions aroused shall have subsided.

I. T. S. TRAINMEN OFFERED INCREASE

SPRINGFIELD Ill., Sept. 13.—Trainmen of the Illinois Traction System have been offered definite wage increase proposals by officials, according to C. F. Handshy, general manager of the road, who declined to say what the advances were.

It was denied that the company had offered the men a maximum of 68 cents an hour after December 1, as reported by trainmen.

The new agreement is said to recognize the reorganized union of trainmen which is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

HANG WRONG MEN

PUEBLO, Colo., Sept. 13.—Two Mexicans were taken from the city jail tonight by a mob of armed citizens, drivin an automobile to the Fourth street bridge, at the city limits and hanged.

The bodies were found forty five minutes after their capture. The lynching followed the arrest of two Mexicans charged with the murder today of Patrolman Jeff Evans.

A false telephone call had drawn the greater part of the police force to Pepper Sauce Bottoms to quell a fight, leaving the desk sergeant and jailor alone.

Police say the mob grabbed the wrong men. Jose Gonales and Santos Ortez arrested for the murder last night of Patrolman Jeff Evans, they say had been transferred to the county jail to avoid trouble.

JOHNSON ANSWERS WILSON'S DEMAND FOR PEACE TREATY

Senator Addresses a Great Audience at Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 13.—A demonstration which lasted eighteen minutes and rivalled his St. Louis welcome, greeter Senator Hiram Johnson here tonight.

Convention Hall was crowded and many were turned away. The crowd stood while it cheered, waved flags, and sang patriotic songs. There were shouts of "Johnson is the next president."

The meeting was under the auspices of the local chapter of the League for the Preservation of American Independence.

Senator Johnson declared the league covenant the most important question that had confronted the American people since the civil war.

"We are at the cross roads of our national destiny," he said. "One road leads to sinister European and Asiatic complications. The other is the straight and narrow path of patriotic Americanism. We want to take the straight and narrow path. That is the only safe course."

He described the league of nations covenant as an "infamous nostrum" which the president promises will cure every ill.

There were loud cheers of "impeach Wilson" from hundreds in the crowd when Senator Johnson after summing up his objections to the league shouted:

"Let us end the whole rotten business by defeating the entire pact."

"We know from the admission of all parties, including the president, that the other American peace delegates protested against the infamy of the Shantung decision; and yesterday the testimony of Mr. Bullitt, one of the president's appointees at Paris, indicated the adverse opinion of the present treaty. His remark that Secretary of State Lansing said the American people would never accept it if they knew its contents is significant and ominous. The president's exclamation about the great document and its penetration with American principles was perhaps not intended to be taken seriously. The facts—the inexorable facts—make the issue with Mr. Wilson.

"Again to you the president said:

"'We wanted disarmament and this document provides in the only possibly way for disarmament by common agreement.' But what the president should have added is what is admitted by all that disarmament under the league of nations is optional.

"There is no disarmament provided for by the league.

"The members of the league, even the United States, are not only not disarming but are providing for the largest armies and navies in their history.

"Mr. Wilson is now asking congress for a standing army of 576,000 men with universal military training, costing practically a billion dollars a year and this at a time when he is ushering in the millenium with the league of nations. The facts—the inexorable facts—make issue with Mr. Wilson."

PERSHING ENJOYS DAY OF ACTIVITY AT WASHINGTON

Attends Track Meet and Ball Game in Afternoon — Observes Birthday

BIG PARADE LOOMS AHEAD

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13—With his headquarters as chief of the American Expeditionary Forces re-established in Washington after more than two years in France General Pershing joined in the Saturday half holiday and went to a track meet and a baseball game. He and his immediate staff spent hours in the open air in sharp contrast to the rush and bustle of their hours in New York and Philadelphia.

Tonight the general completed the celebration of this dual event for him, his return and his fifty-ninth birthday at a family dinner at the home of his father-in-law, Senator Warren of Wyoming.

The only official events of General Pershing's first full day back in the city which probably is to be virtually his permanent home as ranking officer of the army were his conference with Secretary Baker and his inspection of the offices set apart for him.

He was eagerly hailed thruout the day, whenever he was recognized on the streets or elsewhere But the most tumultous greeting given him was at the war department where clerks fairly mobbed him, clinging to his sleeves and thrusting eager hands to greet him. The general fought his way thru smilingly and seemed to enjoy the battle and the warmth of the reception by these fellow workers.

Ahead of the general looms his most significant parade the march up Pennsylvania Avenue next week at the head of the First division.

General Pershing's conference with Mr. Baker was merely an official call. Later he joined Mr. Baker at an inter-departmental track meet. He was glad, Mr. Baker said to the crowd, that filled the stadium and heartily cheered General Pershing on his arrival that the hundreds of federal employes in the stands should have this opportunity to see the "knightly figure of the man who embodies for us all that army for which we have worked."

From the stadum Gen. Pershing went to the ball park where General March awaited him and hundreds of men from the first division stood at salute as he entered the box. Again good Americans cheered and handclapping greeted him

No ceremonies have been planned for General Pershing until he parade Wednesday.

There was comment today over the fact that the geenral wore no decorations, other than the ribbon of the Distinguished Service Cross. An explanation was forthcoming at the department. While it is orders that officers from overseas wear the prescribed trappings, General Pershing, because of his rank, is not subject to such regulations. He may prescribe his own uniform and insignia.

Improves War Insurance For Wounded Men

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Increases practically doubling the monthly compensation originally provided by the war risk insurance act to disabled soldiers and sailors and members of their families, were passed unanimously today by the house, with other amendments to the act liberalizing its provisions and the elimination of red tape in administering the law.

Warm Fight Over Admission Of Negroes to Union

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 13.—A warm fight over admission of negroes to full membership in the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employes and railway shop laborers in convention here is expected next week by officials.

Allied negro locals are represented in the convention only by their railway system chairmen.

Grand President A. E. Barker and Grand Secretary-Treasurer George Zall were re-elected today. The elections will continue next week.

Among resolutions framed for presentation next week is one stating the stand of the brotherhood as "unswervingly hostile to any organization or platform whose avowed object is to substitute a proletarian autocracy for the present democratic form of government in the United States and Canada.

Delegates apparently are satisfied with the proposed new working agreement to sign which the brotherhood's national committee will be sent to Washington. The railroad administration in a message read before the closed session today, according to the officers conceded the one point in dispute, payment at the rate of time and one half for overtime and Sunday work. The new plan also indicates standardization of wages, promotion by seniority and right of appeal from dismissal.

PEORIA LIQUOR DEALER "IN BAD"

Fined for Transporting Liquor and Faces Charges of Speeding, Carrying Concealed Weapons and Driving Auto While Intoxicated.

Galesburg, Sept. 13.—C. S. Liggett, a wholesale liquor dealer at Peoria, Ill., accompanied by Leitlie Mikrel, 24 years old, also of Peoria, crashed into the ditch at the roadside on a curve just south of the Burlington railway crossing midway between Knoxville and Galesburg at 7 oclock this morning, utterly demolishing the touring car which he was driving and seriously injuring the woman passenger, who was later taken to a Galesburg hospital with a badly wrenched back. Liggett escaped with a few minor cuts and bruises.

At the time of the accident Liggett was hauling a cargo of alcohol and whiskey which he probably intended to dispose of in Galesburg. He was later taken before Judge W. C. Funk in the county court, where he was fined $106 and given a 30-days' jail sentence for holding for sale, receiving and transporting liquor in "hone dry" territory.

The prisoner will later be called upon to face charges of carrying concealed weanons, exceeding the speed limit and driving an automobile while intoxicated.

WILSON REVIEWS PACIFIC FLEET ON ELLIOTT BAY

First Time President Has Flown His Flag in Seattle's Harbor

STRIKE NAVAL WHALE BOAT

SEATTLE, Sept. 13.—Marking the first time the president of the United States has flown his flag in Seattle's harbor, President Wilson today reviewed the great Pacific fleet from the decks of the history famed Battleship Oregon in Elliott bay. The review followed an incident which nearly resulted in serious consequences for the presidential party when the president's launch collided bow-on with a naval whale boat.

Arriving at the dock, the president and Mrs. Wilson, Secretary and Mrs. Daniels, secret service men and newspaper men traveling with Mr. Wilson went aboard a launch.

As Commander Foote ordered the launch shoved off the small craft heeled over until the port rail was near under water. Starting ahead then the craft ran bow on into another launch, giving the presidential party a severe jar. The president, however, sat serenely in the aft part of the launch and smiled.

Supersedes Daniels.

The review had another angle of the unusual when at its close, the president, as commander-in-chief of the navy virtually took charge of the Oregon, superseding Secretary Daniels.

The long line of destroyers had circulated the Oregon when Secretary Daniels inquired of Captain Wetingel, commander of the Oregon:

"Do we get underway now, captain?"

"Just as soon as the destroyers have all passed," the captain replied. "The destroyers are hove to," President Wilson put in.

Captain Wetingel took a look, faced about and touching his cap, said:

"Aye, aye, sir."

The Oregon got underway for the return to the anchorage.

Promptly at 2:45 the Oregon weighed anchor and moved down the bay, passing in order the dreadnaughts New Meixco, agship of Admiral Rodman, commander in chief of the fleet; Mississippi, Idaho, Texas and New York. From each huge fighting ship roared a salute of 21 guns while above circled two airplanes. Passing on the Oregon laid to and the Scout Cruiser Birmingham, agship of Rear Admiral Wiley sped into view leading the de the Oregon's bow. On each vessel spaced about 300 yards apart. From her sides began the presidential salute to be taken up by each passing destroyer until the bay for several miles was alive with crackling guns.

The president stood bareheaded thruout most of the review at a vantage point on the forward turret of the Oregon.

A mile down the bay the Birmingham swung about and returning led the destroyers past the Oregon's bow. On each vessel of the fleet the sailors lined rails at attention and bands flung across the waters the strains of the national anthem.

Files Complaint Against Prices Of Series' Games

CINCINNATI, Sept. 13.—Louis H. Capelle, prosecuting attorney of Hamilton county, received a letter today, signed "West End Fan" in which complaint was made against the prices fixed for the world's series baseball games, and the method of awarding reserved seats. "It is evident that profiteering is in the advance sale of the tickets," thewriter charged. "The prices are 400 per cent higher than those charged for ther egular games.

"The idea in the plan of drawing ought to be the subject of a grand jury investigation. I regard it as a prohibitive scheme for the man of ordinary means. The fans are being 'gouged' by profiteers of the Cincinnati Baseball club.

"This matter has not been handled by the national commission but by the Cincinnati Baseball club.

CRISFIELD, Mo., Sept. 13.—Edward W. McCready a wealthy Chicago manufacturer and Miss Margaret Steinbach a nurse of that city, were instantly killed today and the former's 8 year old daughter Sue Ann McCready died a few minutes later when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a train on the Pennsylvania railroad near here.

FIRE FIGHTERS UNABLE TO CHECK FLAMES SWEEPING STANDARD OIL CO. PLANT

Conflagration Raging in Long Island City Will Result in Property Loss Amounting to Millions—Many Thousand Gallons of Oil Consumed—Fire Spreads to Main Building of Columbia Distilling Company's Plant—Three Men Reported Killed on Fire Boat.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The Stone and Fleming works of the Standard Oil company covering twenty acres in Long Island City tonight were wrapped in flames which, after causing damage estimated as reaching into the millions swept on despite the efforts of a dozen fire boats and nearly two score engine companies to check them. Many thousand gallons of oil were consumed.

The blaze started at 2 p. m., following an explosion in one of the tanks believed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. All available apparatus in Long Island City and Brooklyn and several companies from Manhattan were summoned.

Frantic efforts to check the flames failed and toward sunset anxiety began to be felt for the Platt Works of the Standard Oil company on the opposite bank of Newton Creek, on which the Stone and Fleming plant is located.

Lumber yards in the vicinity and plants in which large quantities of alcohol and naptha are stored also were threatened. Altho no one was reported killed, more than a score of persons were burned or otherwise injured. As the flames spread from tank to tank, until at 8 o'clock fifty were ablaze, there were several explosions. About 9 o'clock six more explosions occurred. Fearing a more serious burst spectators fled. Ten more ambulances arrived after the explosions the force of which were felt half a mile away.

Each tank contained many thousand gallons of oil when the fire started, but plant employes immediately put into operation an emergency underground pipe system and began drawing off the oil to other plants in the vicinity. Blazing oil overflowed however, from some tanks and ran along the ground, spreading destruction. Some spread along the surface of the creek, but soon burned itself out. So intense was the heat that occupants of factories near the works and families in tenement houses fled, some carrying belongings.

The smoke was so thick that employes with a knowledge of the plant guided the firemen in their work. Firemen between tanks were relieved at ten minute intervals. By order of the fire fighters nine searchlights were set up.

About 10 o'clock the flames spread to the main building of the Columbia Distilling company's plant on the same side of the creek as the Stone and Fleming Works, and the alcohol stored there burned with a roar. Burning oil also spread across the creek threatening the Platt Works. Three men on one fire boat were reported killed.

Mine Workers Demand Action Of Government

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 13.—Confessing its inability to find off hand a satisfactory solution of the problem of reducing the high cost of living, the convention of the United Mine Workers of America today demanded vigorous action from the federal government as the only agency capable of checking the operation of food gamblers and unscrupulous profiteers. Legislation such as this week passed congress, carrying penalties which will effectually curb the practice of marking up the prices of necessities on the principle of charging all that the traffic will bear, was held to be the only effective remedy.

Among the substitute panaceas rejected by the convention or its committee in resolutions were the creation of economic commissions with power to fix definite prices for all commodities of the daily use, congressional legislation reducing immediate prices of feed and clothing by 25 per cent under penalty of confiscation of the property of all those violating the law, prosecution and dissolution of the Chicago packing companies, erection of government cold storage warehouses for the proper distribution of foodstuffs and the death penalty for food profiteers.

One speaker proposed that the federal government be allotted 90 days grace to 'effect a substantial reduction in the cost of living. If this was unaccomplished in that period the miners should take steps to tie up industry by a nationwide strike.

For the miners according to the resolution adopted this problem has particular interest since they still are workin under an agreement almost two years old. A resolution introduced by colored miners, but supported by the convention, demanded legislation making lynching and mob violence federal offenses.

No time will be lost in organizing the alliance with the four great railroad brotherhoods for joint political and industrial action to bring about the nationalization of railways and mines and other economic questions of mutual interest to which the convention gave its approval at the morning session.

Arrangements were made by telegraph during the day for a conference between the miners' representatives and the heads of the four big railroad brotherhoods starting Oct. 1. According to prominent miner officials right of way will be granted by the miners to the question of nationalization of railroads that of the miners be reserved for a subsequent campaign should the railroaders representatives agree to support this agreement.

"We have, however, not a

Senator Scores Reorganization Bill For Army

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Characterizing the administration army re-organization bill proposing a regular force of 500-000 men as "militarism run mad," Senator Chamberlain, Democrat, Oregon, has submitted to the senate military committee an "analytical and explanatory statement" proposing that the measure be rejected entirely and congress prepare a new bill.

"Nearly all of the control heretofore exercised by congress over the army," the senator declares, "is to be transferred theoretically to the president, but practically to the chief of staff. However, congress is still permitted to foot the bills."

In seeking to make permanent the army and departmental organization built up during the war, Senator Chamberlain's statement says, the bill would perpetuated a situation that brought "destruction to initiative" disheartenment and disorganization to the bureaus which have been raided; has caused enormous duplication of work, great waste of funds, endless delays and general inefficiency, not to say chaos in the work of the war denartment and of the general staff."

The spirit shown by the framers of the act, he charged, is one of the "consuming desire for despotic unrestricted power—militarism run mad."

The specific charge is that the clauses of the act which carry out that spirit are "ingeniously" separated and scattered and "very closely concealed—camouflaged."

The bill is denounced as a preposterous scheme which spells one man dominance, staff despotism and militarism to a degree never surpassed in the palmiest days of the great general staff of Germany.

Chief attention is paid by Senator Chamberlain to those sections of the bill which he declares are framed to absorb into the general staff and bring under the personal control of the chief of staff of all the duties and powers of the old statutory bureaus.

The senator draws a sharp contrast between what he said happened in the war department under complete general staff control, during the war and in the navy where the bureau system was maintained.

WHAT WILL IT BENEFIT?

It is proposed to extend the food control bill to include a larger number of necessities in the hope that the government may in this way be able to reduce living costs. However, the law is to be in effect only until peace is formally declared. That will probably be only a few months hence and just what benefit can accrue from such an amendment to the law nobody seems to know.

THE WORST OF ALL

None of the many strikes in the cities thruout the country has brought forth such a storm of protest as that of the policemen in Boston, the "Athens of America." For men sworn into office to protect life and property to enter on a strike which jeopardizes both life and property is something that only the most extreme radicals in America can sanction.

There is this hopeful thing about the development, that if conditions become exceedingly obnoxious to the public, the sooner reaction will come and the relief which is always a result when public opinion is strong enough.

THE DECATUR WAY

While we are talking in Jacksonville about a bond issue for the purpose of paying the city's debts and doing other things equally as advisable, in Decatur a bond issue has been suggested in order to provide additional playgrounds for the children of the city. The board of education there wants to enlarge the playgrounds and has no money available.

No decision has been reached in the matter but the people of Decatur are progressive, not afraid of taxation, and it is not at all unlikely that they will do the very thing that the board of education is talking about.

A COUNTY TRIP WILL PROVE IT

If you do not already know what a splendid country there is about Jacksonville and all thru Morgan county, and if you do not understand why the corn belt area stands out boldly in advantageous comparison with other areas, drive out into the country. Even in these days of extremely dusty roads you can get a view of the corn fields that make Illinois famous. And when you mentally count the numerous and heavy hanging ears you can understand that a bumper crop is coming.

Then go back in memory a few weeks and you will find that there were complaints because the wheat crop did not come up to expectations. But the corn crop is going to more than make good that deficiency. It is always so in the corn belt area. There is never a complete failure, and year after year goes by with the lack of one crop made good by the other. This is the secret of "the garden spot of Illinois."

SINCERELY APPRECIATIVE.

Members of the Minnesota legislature are sincere in their appreciation of soldiers who have returned from service. The house by unanimous vote passed the bill providing bonuses for returned service men. In some states and communities during the war time the slogan was popular, "Nothing too good for our soldiers." But afterward enthusiasm lapsed and there were no very generous provisions made for the men who bore the brunt of the war.

SECRETARY LANSING'S VIEW.

Secy. of State Lansing has gone on a brief fishing trip. Possibly the vacation at this time was the result of the testimony before the foreign relations committee that he had said if the American senate and the people really understood the peace treaty and what it is letting the U. S. in forfi they would defeat it. In the view of the country, Mr. Lansing was a capable diplomat and an international lawyer of broad training. A great deal of added interest attaches to his views because of their variance from those of his chief, Pres. Wilson.

THE UNANIMOUS VOTE

The ordinary average citizen doesn't know much about the League of Nations or the covenant, but it is puzzling to the average mind to understand just where the league is to accomplish all the things desired since its decisions will not be binding except by unanimous consent.

This point has been explained in answer to the criticism that the U. S., with one vote, would be at the mercy of England, with her six votes, made possible by colonies. The explanation indicates that one vote is just as forceful as six and therefore, that the U. S. will be at no disadvantage. If all nations agree on all points it is clear that there need be no fear of war. But the difficulty will be to get that unanimity of opinion and, as stated, one dissenting voice will spoil it all.

TAX INCREASES.

A statistician has figured out that taxes in the U. S. must for a long period show an average increase of 110 per cent by comparison with the pre-war period. This sounds like a very heavy increase and the taxpayer will wonder how he is going to meet it. But comparing the increase with that of other countries makes it seem small. In England taxes must be 180 per cent greater than before the war. In France 200 per cent and in Germany 340 per cent. This question of high taxes is closely related to the value of lands as Wallaces Farmer sees it, and explains in the following paragraphs:

The only way out for the important countries of the world seems to be the maintaining of an inflated price level. If they can hold prices on a level two or three times above the pre-war level, they may be able to pay their taxes with such inflated currency without going bankrupt. Of course, inflation brings its own evils, but it rather looks as tho European countries would choose while at the same time making occasional, violent stabs at the high-cost-of-living problem, in order to prevent revolution among their people.".

GEN. DAWES OUT OF POLITICS

Brigadier Gen. Charles G. Dawes has no intention of becoming a candidate for political office nor for assuming the Lowden or Pershing campaigns, with which his name has been associated. Gen. Dawes declares unequivocally that he wants nothing to do with politics now and is interested only in seeking to catch up with business which he left suddenly in 1917 to enter war work.

The effect of this statement may be to increase the interest in the possible candidacy of Gen. Dawes for the presidential nomination and to encourage the insistence of his friends. But the statement of his intentions has all the sound of sincerity.

WHAT SPECIAL ELECTIONS COST.

Why it is reasonable to have some variation in certain laws as applied to Chicago and the rest of the state is emphasized in the situation resulting from the death of County Judge Thomas F. Scully there. Unless thru a special assemblage of the legisuature the law can be changed, a primary and election will be necessary to fill the vacancy and the cost to the people of Chicago will be samewhere between $1,000,000 and $1,200,000. The condition also give point to the importance of official position in a great city like Chicago.

Rippling Rhyms
By Walt Mason

THE SOBERING BUNDLE

When you have a bunch of boodle in the bank just up the pike, you'll stand up for Yankee Doodle, law and order and the like. Then no creed of devastation, such as Russian outlaws shriek, will receive your confirmation—you'll denounce it like a streak. When a man is broke and busted, with no package laid away, he is evermore disgusted with the laws we all obey. He would see our courts all leveled, and the judges on the rack, and the plutocrats bedeviled till they gave up all their stack. He would see all things up-ended, Justice he would render mute; then his chances would be splendid to accumulate some loot. I have seen some agitators stirring up the people's souls, and they all wore cast-off gaiters and their pants were full of holes. And they said their chains were clanking, as they damned the plutocrat; if they'd only do some banking they would soon get over that. I have heard the spielers thriftless putting up their weary song; I have heard the weak and shiftless saying everything is wrong. But the man who saves his money thinks the Russian creed absurd, and he thinks it beastly funny that so many yawps are heard.

GEORGE E. KETTERING RECEIVES APPOINTMENT

Will Go to Annapolis to Enter Navy Next Spring—Appointment Comes Thru Congressman Rainey.

George Edward Kettering, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kettering of this city, has received notice of his appointment to the Naval Academy at Annapolis. Mr. Kettering is a senior at Routt College and will complete his work next spring.

The past summer he has been employed in the office of State Auditor Andrew Russel in Springfield. He is held in high regard by Mr. Russel and his fellow employes.

Mr. Kettering is the second Jacksonville boy to be honored with the naval appointment from this district in the past few years. Lieutenant Emmett Keating graduated from the academy during the war and is now winning laurels in the service.

The appointee is a young man of studious habits and stands high in his classe at Routt. He is also popular with his classmates who are glad to learn of his preferment.

The appointment comes thru Congressman Rainey of this district. Mr. Kettering will report at Annapolis some time next spring for his entrance examination. His many friends feel confident that he will pass the test with high honors.

"Daddy Long Legs"

The Love Story of an Orphan.

Judy Abbott was an orphan. She was mothered by an ash can. She was found by a kind hearted officer who took her to the John Grier Orphanage. There the namless waif was christened by a telephone directory. Then, when she got bigger they made her wear plain gingham dresses just like all the other little orphans, with their hair in a braid. Judy had a kind heart. There was a little red headed, freckled faced boy orphan who was her pal. Together they decided, when Judy was about twelve years old to declare a prune strike. The matron fed them all prunes for every meal. Judy called a meeting of all the orphans.

The teacher caught her. Judy and her little freckle faced pal were driven into the cellar. There they prayed for food without prunes. A jug of apple jack fell at their feet. The matron found them in the cellar. A kind lady heard about Judy. Then came an offer by an unknown trustee to send her to college. Judy studied hard and graduated at the head of her class. Her "Dady Long Legs" benefactor had to be repaid. So Judy wrote a book and became famous. Then she found out who Daddy Long Legs was.

SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF OPENS NEXT TUESDAY

Indications are That Coming Year Will be a Successful One.

The Illinois School for the Deaf opens Tuesday, Sept. 16. Indications are, judging from the number of applications received during the past few weeks at the office of Managing Officer White, that this year's enrolment will be considerably larger than those of several years past. Among the added advantages which the children will enjoy this year are the services of two instructors of physical training and the use of a set of playground apparatus which has recently been placed on the grounds. The coming year gives every promise of being a successful one.

More Facts About MOLINE-UNIVERSAL TRACTOR

With the Moline-Universal one man sitting on the seat of the implement has absolute control over the entire outfit and does just as good or better work than with horses. Every farmer knows that any implement at work requires constant attention. The implement is the profit maker and unless it works properly there is no excuse for the operation of the entire outfit. On other tractors one man is required on the tractor and one man on the implement. Every farmer knows the expense of the extra man will pay for the tractor. It is just as illogical to ride on the back of one of the horses and expect the implement to follow without attention as to ride a tractor and expect to operate the implement from that position. There has been good reason in the past for putting a seat on implements, for it is from this point that a man must make adjustments to meet different field conditions.

Neither is it practical to operate the ordinary tractor from the seat of the implement by means of a flexible steering rod. Such an outfit is a makeshift, is strung out and is unwieldy and cannot be backed. The steering rod is also constantly shifting and therefore causes difficult steering.

So easy is the operation of the Moline-Universal that a woman or boy can handle it. It turns in a 16-foot circle and backs with the implement as readily as it goes forward. Thru the operation of the differential brake, all heavy hand turning of the steering wheel is eliminated. This makes it ideal for work in small fields or getting into fence corners. The Moline-Universal also lifts itself out of dead furrows, and will pull loads on steeper grades than other tractors.

ARE ACQUITTED OF WOODRUFF MURDER

OLATHE, Kan., Sept. 13.—Emmett L. Thomas, Mrs. Blanche Brown and Mrs. Margaret Love, charged with the murder of Herbert G. Woodruff, were acquitted by a jury here today. Six ballots were taken during the five and one half hours' deliberating. The murder charge grew out of the killing of Woodruff several weeks ago when the party of four had made an automobile trip into an unfrequented part of Johnson county, Kansas, adjacent to Kansas City.

All three of the defendants maintained the shooting was done by a negro, who forced one of the women to take valuables from Woodruff's pocket.

JOHN BARLEYCORN MIGRATING TO ORIENT

John Barleycorn, exiled from the United States, is migrating to China in thousand-case lots. With the French champagne producing districts ravaged by war, there is such large demand throughout the Orient for California champagnes and other American liquors that the firms caught with tremendous supplies have a splendid chance to "get out from under" at splendid profit before the Sheppard Act becomes effective in January.

Several steamers are leaving here every week with an indecently large quantity of intoxicants stowed away, but as January approaches there will be still heavier cargoes of liquor, to avoid confiscation in America. Shanghai firms are the main buyers.

WILL LEAVE TONIGHT FOR TRIP TO ENGLAND

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Foster of Near Alexander Secure Passports for Journey After Long Effort—Will Be Away Four Months.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Foster of Alexander expect to leave tonight on the Alton Hummer for the start of their trip to England.

They will go first to Chicago and from there to New York where on Thursday they will sail on the Cunard steamer Acquitania for across the Atlantic. They expect to be away about four months on the trip which combines business with pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster have had the trip under contemplation for some time. The first thing to be obtained was their passports and these very necessary papers required more than a month in the obtaining. They made a trip to Chicago this past week especially to secure the passports. These papers they received from the British consulate general in Chicago.

After getting the passports they were fortunate in securing second class cabin reservations on the Acquitania, one of the fastest and safest boats in the Atlantic service.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster will first go to their old home at Snaith, Yorkshire, England. They will visit at many different points in the country during the time they are away, London, of course, included. Ocean travel is not new to the travelers, however, as Mr. Foster has crossed the ocean sixteen times, this being his ninth trip from America to England.

Their farm north of Alexander and other interests in this vicinity will be looked after by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Oddy during their absence.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Foster in this and adjacent counties will extend best wishes for a pleasant and safe voyage.

PERSONAL PROPERTY SHOWS A DECREASE

TOTALS ARE COMPLETED BY COUNTY TREASURER GRAFF

Figures Are Given as $12,226,053 —Automobiles Increase and Slump in Number and Value of Horses Follows.

County Treasurer Grant Graff and his deputies Charles H. James and W. H. Self, have completed the assessment work for Morgan county The work of fixing values was more extensive this year because of the change in tax laws made by the last legislature.

The total of personal property as indicated is $12,226,053, showing a slight decrease by comparison with personal property valuation in 1918, when the figures were $12,362,319. Both the 1918 and the 1919 totals, however, show an increase of more than $2,000,000 by comparision with the figures for 1917. It is noticeable that for this year there has been a decided slump in the value of horses, the figures for 1919 being $800,850, which is nearly $198,000 less than the value of horses last year.

The value of automobiles and auto trucks this year shows a large increase, being $721,967 by comparison with $607,917 in 1918. When contrasted with $376,275, the automobile valuation of 1917, a very substantial increase can be noted. This is probably largely responsible for the decrease in the number and value of horses.

The merchandise on hand this year is of considerably more value than than of last year. The figures for 1919 are $1,039,895, in contrast with $937,027 in 1918. There was a big increase this year in the moneys of individuals, the records showing $1,918,017, while for last year the figures were $997,405. There was a big slump in the value of grain and hay on hand this year, the total being $729,224, by comparison with $1,203,565 in 1918.

The total value of lands for this year is $27,940,005, the total value of town lots $11,102,320. These with the total value of personal property is $12,226,653, make a grand total $51,268,888. The totals this year from the treasurer's records are as given below.

THREAD RUBBER

How We Go At It

First we look into the battery to see if you put water in it.

Then we use the hydrometer which is the one reliable way of knowing the condition of its charge.

Then, if no special cause of trouble appears we put it on the line to see if it will take a charge.

But if there is plain indication of serious trouble we open the battery up and find out exactly what's what.

Don't trust your battery to amateurs or artists in guesswork, who claim they can tell inside condition by outside inspection.

Come here where you find adequate machines and apparatus to really inspect, charge and repair any battery.

THE PASSAVANT HOSPITAL CAMPAIGN

The Amount Grows Very Slowly and Something Must be Done if the Work is to Go On.

The campaign for Passavant hospital moves along very slowly. Some persons will have to give a few thousands each if this matter is to succeed. Each man must judge of what he does and no one can dictate in the matter but the plain fact remains the campaign must be speeded up with some liberal subscriptions or it must fail. The goal has been set at $25,000 and yet a small part of that sum has been secured.

Below is a list of subscriptions thus far received. A few possibly may have come in since the list was made out:

FAMILY REUNION HELD AT OLD SALEM

Spears and Beekman Held Reunion in Former Home of Abraham Lincoln—Voted to Make it Annual Affair.

At Old Salem Saturday the descendants of the Spears and Beekman families gathered for a reunion. Sixty members were present from Kansas, Missouri and many parts of Illinois. The affair was so successful that it was voted to make it an annual affair.

Seven generations of George Spears were represented at the reunion. This pioneer made his first trip to Illinois on horseback in 1822. He went back to Kentucky and returned with his family in 1824. He took up a farm three miles north of Tallula. This farm is still owned and occupied by a great grandson, Charles Spears.

George Spears spent many years of his life in the vicinity of Tallula and thus was identified with a part of Illinois made famous thru the fact that Abraham Lincoln spent some of the early years of his life in Old Salem and his sweetheart, Ann Rutledge, also lived there.

The company visited the home of Ann Rutledge and the home of Dr. Allen, grandfather of Dr. A. M. King and other places of historic interest.

At noon a picnic dinner was enjoyed and after dinner the company proceeded to become acquainted, it being the first time many of the relatives had met.

Morgan county furnished a big delegation, among them J. B. Beekman and his entire family of eleven children. All present thoroly enjoyed the reunion and voted to make it an annual affair.

MERLE BEDDINGFIELD, Auctioneer

From County Agents Office

The farmers of the county are reminded of the meeting at the court house at p. 2m. Saturday, Sept. 13th for the purpose of hearing Vernon H. Kern explain the method by which the Federal Land bank loans money to farmers on long time at low rates of interest. This plan is especially interesting to the man who wants to borrow sums ranging from $100 to $10,000. An inqury amongst farmers in Morgan county, reveals the fact that there is a great deal of local interest in this system. Waverly has had association of this sort for some years. Local banks endorse these systems because it results in a great deal of outside money being brought into a locality for internal improvement.

Soybeans—The county agent made an inspection of soybeans planted with the corn in a number of fields near Literberry. He visited fields belonging to W. H. Crum, Durrell Crum, S. H. Crum and A. B. Chapman. This is the first time that these men have tried the project and they are certainly making a success of it. They are going to feed the beans for a few days before turning the hogs ate the corn but passed by accustomed to them. In times past, when this was not done, the hogs ate the corn but passed by the beans. The plan these men at Literberry are following to make the project of raising home grown feeds, that form a balanced ration a success.

Limestone Soil — Several months ago L. P. Cowdin, of the Joy Prairie neighborhood, brought to this office a chunk of rock containing a great deal of clay and lime. The acid test reveals that it runs very high in carbonates. This soil differs from a good deal of soil in Morgan county in that it does not turn blue litmus paper red. Another example of similar soil is found in an alfalfa field belonging to Alfred Brockhouse, west of Concord. Mr. Brockhouse has found that alfalfa does not do very well on that part of the field. Oddly enough the soil is very rich in lime down as deep as the soil auger will go. Further there is moisture enough in this soil to meet the needs of any growing crop. We ordinarily think that when the soil is limed that it is prepared for alfalfa. In this particular field there is a dearth of some other element.

Morgan County Man Wins Prizes—J. H. Nickel and Sons of Arenzville put Morgan County on the map at the Illinois State Fair by carrying away over $300 in prize money on their Berkshire hogs. In all, this firm brought back 27 ribbons. This was the greatest winning alloted to any bunch of Berkshires in the state of Illinois.

Mr. Nickel and Sons won first at Springfield on both Junior Champion Boar and Junior Champion sow. At the Iowa State Fair he won 22 ribbons and again first on the Junior Champion Sow. At Lincoln, Nebraska he carried away the prize for the Grand Champion sow, Senior Champion Sow, Junior Champion Boar and Junior Champion Sow. In all, Mr. Nickel won 71 ribbons at the 3 state fairs. Seven of these were purple ribbons, which are only alloted to champions which have, heretofore, won a blue ribbon. Mr. Nickel attributes the success of his exhibit to the excellent work done by his oldest son in fitting these animals for the show.

Culling Poultry—Last year the United States Department of Agriculture had a number of special men who went over the county demonstrating the scientific way to select hens for egg production. We had a number of poultry culling demonstrations in this county. The emergency fund, from which these me nwere paid was exhausted July 1st. Since that time it is up to the County Agent or some specialist, whom the Farm Bureau may employ, to do the demonstrating. In this county the culling has been in accordance with a score card developed at Cornell University.

The essential points in this culling are easily mastered in a short time during the demonstration. During the past week at C. E. Criswell's, southwest of Franklin, at Grover Whitlock's southeast of Murrayville and W. F. Deterding, west of Concord, demonstrations were held that were very satisfactory from the County Agent's standpoint. Both men and women at these demonstrations were not content to be mere spectators but got in the game. In a short time many of those were able to cull chickens as well as many of the so-called experts. In culling a flock the demonstrator seeks, first of all, to get two extreme types, a layer and non-layer and fix their characteristics in the minds of those who are present at the demonstration.

After that the entire flock is culled, the layers being separated from the non-layers. As a part of the demonstration flock owners are encouraged to keep the culls for several days in order to see whether the demonstrator judgment is any good. In the flocks culled in Morgan County from 20 to 50 per cent of the birds have been rejected as not being of good egg producing type. The County Agent will be very glad to hold other demonstration meetings of this sort in communities where demonstrations of this sort have not heretofore been held. However, these ought to be arranged for the month of September.

CANTON MAN HAS GAINED 20 POUNDS

Conn is Relieved of Sixteen Years' Trouble Through Taking Course of Tanlac.

"I tried for sixteen long years to find a medicine or treatment that would overcome my troubles, but all my efforts failed completely until I commenced taking Tanlac," said Dan Conn, a well known employee of the P. & O. Implement Co., and who lives at 861 East Elm street, Canton, Ill., the other day.

"My general health just seemed to give down all at once," continued Mr. Conn, "and during all these years it has been a hard struggle for me to keep on my feet. It was just a general all round breakdown, but my stomach seemed to give me more trouble than anything else. What little I ate just seemed to live like a lump of lead right in the pit of my stomach and would cause me to suffer something awful. All my strength left me and I just had to drag around with no life hardly at all. Then to make matters worse, rheumatism hit me about four years ago, and this trouble got so bad that it finally put me in bed where I had to stay for a good long time. For several days at a time, my legs would be so badly drawn up that I couldn't straighten nthem out at all, and the only way I could get relief was by rubbing my legs for hours at a time. I lost so much in weight until I got to where I looked like a skeleton almost. I went everywhere for treatment that I was able to go, and tried many different kinds of medicine, but I just gradually got worse all the time.

"That was the condition I was in when a friend of mine talked me into giving this Tanlac a trial, and sir, if you would just come down to the factory an dsee me work now, you would never think that I was down and out in health such a short time ago. Tanlac did it too, and I'll tell the world so, and I will say further that I think it is the best medicine on earth. Tanlac just hit my case exactly, and since taking nine bottles of it I am as well and strong as I was in my life. I have a fine appetite, and everything I eat agrees with me all right. My stomach trouble has been completely overcome, and so has the rheumatism. I have gained over twenty pounds in weight, and am stronger in every way than I have been in sixteen years. Now a medicine that will do that much for a man ought to be talked about, and as long as I live I will boost Tanlac everywhere I go."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve; in Waverly by the Wyle Drug Co.; in Murrayville by M. E. Gilbert; in Woodstock by the Hoy Pharmacy.—Adv.

CONSERVATORY NOTES

The Conservatory year will open next Wednesday, September 17th. Registration days fall on Monday and Tuesday, September 15th and 16th. The prospects are for a busy year in all departments. There are two new members on the faculty, Mr. Charles Keep, from Bethany College, Lindsborg, Kansas, has charge of the Voice Department, succeeding Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson. Miss Hazel Blele Long is taking the place occupied for some years by Miss Ruth Duncan. She will teach piano and Public School Music. The faculty remains, otherwise, the same as last year, excepting that Mrs. Robert Keating will not return.

Mrs. Bullard spent part of the summer in Jacksonville making an extended visit to Chicago in August. Mr. Kritch and Mr. Munger returned from their western trip on the first of September. Miss Long spent her summer in study, part of the time with Miss Mary Wood Chase at Epworth Heights, Mich., and part under Mrs. Constance Barlow Smith, with whom she studied Public School Methods. Miss Pires remained in Jacksonville most of the vacation, and Miss Forrester was at her home in Kahoka, Mo.

Mrs. Bullard has accepted the position of organist at State Street Church.

Miss Ruth Duncan gave a recital of her students in piano in Mount Sterling on August 26th. She was accompanied by Miss Lucille Baker, who sang a number of songs, accompanied by Miss Duncan.

Miss Jane Ninde, who received a Teacher's Certificate in the Conservatory and took a degree in music at the University of Wyoming last June, has been given the position of Supervisor of Public School Music in Thermopolis, Wyoming, where she has also charge of a kindergarten.

Mr. Frank Collins, Jr., gave an organ recital in Virginia last Tuesday evening, Sept. 6th. Mr. Keep of the Conservatory faculty, sang two groups of songs, accompanied by Mr. Munger and assisted by Mr. Kritch on the violin. The concert was well attended by a most enthusiastic audience.

A new Steinway B grand piano, to be used in Mr. Munger's studio, has been received from Chicago at the Conservatory.

The Illinois College Chorus will be under the direction of Mr. Charles Keep. Announcement will be made soon of the nature of the works to be studied and the date of the first rehearsal.

The Conservatory Orchestra, under Mr. Kritch, will hold rehearsals on Wednesday evenings, at seven as usual. The first meeting will take place on Wednesday evening, September 24th.

DIVISION FENCE DISPUTE SETTLED

The decision in a dispute over a division fence was filed in the office of County Clerk C. L. Riggs Saturday. The difference was between David Tuke and Enos F. Massey with reference to a fence between their farms. The law provides that in case of a dispute that fence viewers may be summoned to act in arbitration. Mr. Tuke named J. H. Cain and Mr. Massey named L. O. Berryman. These two then chose Charles A. Rowe and the three gave the decision which is binding on the two men interested. It was decided that Mr. Tuke should be responsible for the shorter distance because it would be more expensive to maintain it there.

SCHOOL CHILDREN ENJOY ANNUAL BURGOO

Over 1,000 Children Get Outside of 500 Gallons of Soup—Day Passed Without Accident and Everybody Had a Good Time.

The annual burgoo picnic of the public school children of the city was enjoyed yesterday along with a lot of the mothers and all went well. Early in the day the little folks began thinking of the time they would have and they had it without restraint.

The capable hand of Isaac Watson and his son Leonard, on whom the mantle of the father is failing, had charge of the kettles and that is enough to guarantee a first class pieec of work in that direction. If anybody can beat the Watsons making burgoo soup he has made himself extremely scarce in this vicinity. All honor and many thanks to them.

Everything had been prepared the day before and Friday evening the fires were lighted under eight huge cauldrons and the work began. The beef, ox tails, chickens, and vegetables, rice noodles and corn were added at the proper time and then Uncle Isaac opened that mysterious suitcase with its array of bottles and cans and proceeded to season the savory compound and in due time pronounced it all right and that was guarantee enough.

The street car service was simply excellent; the patience and courtesy of the motormen and conductors were boundless and not a hard or cross word was heard of during the day and all went and returned in safety without any kind of injury. The only mishap of the day was that of a little girl whose head was accidentally struck by a swing on the playground but she didn't have to leave.

Load after load arrived until a little more than 1,300 persons, old and young, were on the grounds. Games, playground, boats and all sorts of amusements occupied the time and all went well and happily with the one exception mentioned.

Of course the soup was the prime attraction and well toward 400 to 500 gallons was steaming and ready. All were told to sit down on the grass and then the serving began. All were fed till they cried enough good and plenty and then the waiters had a rest till afternoon when the process was repeated. Where some of those children stowed that soup is a mystery. It was rich and full of good things and yet some boys ate six to nine bowls of it. There was just enough for dinner and supper. Possibly a few would have eaten a bit more but not many. Hosts of compliments on the soup were expressed during the day.

As the shadows began to lengthen the crowd began thinning out and in due season all danded at home somewhat tired but happy.

The management was sorry to refuse soup to so many visitors but they took it good naturedly and it was necessary as it was the children's treat. Some very welcome guests were 22 pupils from the school for the blind who enjoyed the occasion greatly.

The management desires to thank sincerely all who had a part in the success of the day. They can't all be mentioned as there were many of them. The faithful park superintendent, Joseph Hopper and his force did much; the eighth grade boys who helped; Mullenix and Hamilton who loaned the boats free; the teachers who aided in serving, the Watsons, the street railway men and all others are kindly remembered.

It is truly a bit remarkable This is the eighteenth annual event for children, either excursion or burgoo, and all have ben practically pleasant days.

Doctor Tells How to Detect Harmful Effects of Tobacco

Try These SIMPLE TESTS

New York: Doctor Connor, formerly of Johns Hopkins hospital, says: Many men who smoke, chew or snuff incessantly and who are seemingly healthy are suffering from progressive organic ailments. Thousands of them would never have been afflicted had it not been for the use of tobacco and thousands would soon get well if they would only stop the use of tobacco. The chief habit forming principle of tobacco is nicotine, a deadly poison which, when absorbed by the system slowly affects the nerves, membranes, tissues and vital organs of the body. The harmful effect of tobacco varies and depends on circumstances. One will be afflicted with general debility, others with catarrh of the throat, indigestion, constipation, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of memory, lack of will power, mental concentration, etc. Others may suffer from heart disease, bronchial trouble, hardening of the arteries, tuberculosis, blindness or even cancer or the common affliction known as tobacco heart.

If you use tobacco in any form you easily detect its harmful effects by making the following simple tests: Read aloud a full page from a book. If our voice becomes muffled, hoarse and indistinct and you must frequently clear your throat, the chances are that your throat is affected by catarrh and it may be the beginning of very serious catarrhal trouble. Next, in the morning, before taking your usual smoke, walk up three flights of stairs at a regular pace, then stop. If you find that you are out of breath, if your heart beat is forced, trembling or irregular, you may be the victim of a functional or organic heart trouble. If you feel that you must smoke or chew to quiet your nerves, you are a slave to the tobacco habit and are slowly poisoning ourself with the insidious deadly drugs, nicotine and furfural. In either case, you have just two alternatives—keep on with your self-poisoning process regardless of the dangers, and suffer the consequences, or rid yourself of the habit and escape the dangers.

You can overcome the craving and stop the tobacco habit in a very short time by using the following inexpensive formula: Go to any drug store and ask for Nicotol. Take one tablet after each meal and in a comparatively short time you will have no desire for tobacco. The craving will have left you. With the nicotine poisoning out of your system your general health will quickly improve.

Note—When asked about Nicotol tablets, one of our leading druggists said: "It is truly a wonderful remedy for the tobacco habit; away ahead of anything we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to every dissatisfied customer, and we would not permit the use of our name unless the remedy possessed unusual merit." Nicotol tablets are sold in this city under an iron-clad money-back guarantee by all up-to-date druggists, including Armstrong's Drug Stores. Adv.

MAKES ARGUMENT AGAINST INTERVENTION

Chicago Church Federation Considers Mexican Situation at Special Conference—An Interesting View Given.

An interesting view of the Mexican situation from a church and missionary viewpoint is contained in the following letter from D. W. Lawrence to Mrs. Mary R. Parsons. There is no denying the fact that world events of recent years have given new interest and importance to missionary work.

Chicago Commons,
Sept. 11, 1919.

My Dear Mrs. Parsons:

I am sending you a report of Mr. Samuel Guy Inman, a missionary, who is acting as secretary of the committee on co-operation in Latin America, representing thirty American mission boards. He has just published a book thru the association press entitled "Intervention in Mexico." From this letter you will see how he views the question of war with Mexico. You perhaps saw his article in a recent survey. I thought you would be interested in this and could aid in spreading the gospel of good will as opposed to the gospel of blood.

Held Conference.

The time seems so critical, with inflammatory headlines in the newspapers regarding the Mexican bandits, and various articles inspired by the interests desiring war with Mexico, that the Chicago Church federation called a special meeting to consider this subject only. President Willett pointed out that for years we have been peacefully intervening in Mexico thru religious and educational agencies, all of which would be stopped and much of the fruit lost if we pursued the course of armed intervention. Dr. Willett put the case quite fair-mindedly and judiciously but one could not fail to see that he was quite disturbed by the situation. This meeting was open to the layman and at least one representative of the interests with investments in Mexico was there to plead their cause. But tho there were differences of opinion regarding President Carranza yet there was but one vote against the resolution which strongly condemned intervention in Mexico.

It was brought out during the meeting that the newspapers were loathe to accept any news item that was not against the Mexican government. Judging from the report in Chicago's most reliable newspaper (the News) there is much truth in the above statement. The News did not tell a true story of the meeting giving the impression that the assembly opposed the resolution against intervention, and that most of the ministers bitterly condemned the resolutions, neither of which is true.

It was pointed out that while banditry still existed in Mexico, yet that it was being gradually suppressed and a stable government was being established. While admitting that the Mexican government was not perfect, they were not blind to the faults in our government, more people having been killed in the riots in Chicago than had been killed on the border.

Charge Unfairness.

The committees of the house and of the senate which are investigating the Mexican situation were not considered as fair in their attitude, at least this was the opinion regarding the senate committee. One of the witnesses posing as a friend of Mexico in testifying before the house committee has been shown by his own letters (intercepted) to be friendly with Villa and other rebels. This man has been writing articles for the World's Work and the North American Review to arouse a sentiment in favor of intervention in Mexico. Professor Willett says that an attempt is being made thru propaganda to arouse a "moral" sentiment in favor of war with Mexico. If we Christian people arouse a real moral sentiment in favor of the continuation of the constructive program of friendly intervention, we may be able to thwart the efforts of the war makers. But if we refuse to do our part in Christianizing politics, as some whom we know would have us do, I presume we will be headed for some years of bloodshed.

Last night Mrs. Hoover called be requesting that I again talk for the Missionary society. As I have not the time to prepare a talk on another subject and as I believe it an opportune time, I think that I should use Mexico as my subject, with particular reference to intervention and its effect upon our educational and missionary work in Mexico and our friendship with that country.

GENERAL PERSHING TO VISIT BOYHOOD HOME

Hero of America Will Visit Laclede, Mo., the Home of His Early Days—Homecoming Will Mark Reunion of Pershing Family.

Laclede, Mo., Sept. 12.—General Pershing is coming back to his boyhood home here.

He will return a full fledged general, the hero of America, but to the boyhood companions with whom he stole apples, and played at the old swimmin' hole, it will be the Johnny" Pershing who spent his early life here before going away to West Point to embark on a military career.

A cablegram received by Mayor Edmund B. Allen promises a visit by the general shortly after his arrival in the United States.

Some time ago when Laclede learned that General Pershing was returning from Europe the following cablegram was dispatched to him by Mayor Allen:

Laclede, your old home, your boyhood friends and Linn county are calling you. When may we expect you home."

General Pershing cabled in reply:

"I have heard the call. Will be there soon after my arrival in the United States. Can't give you definite date now but will let you know later."

Laclede will pay tribute to General Pershing on his arrival not with the pomp and ceremony that marked his reception in European capitals, but with a "good old fashioned Missouri homecoming," according to the committee arranging for his reception.

Plans for the general's entertainment include re-unions with old schoolmates and chums, trips to the old swimmin' hole on Muddy creek and to the old Pershing farm.

The homecoming will also mark a re-union of the Pershing family. James Pershing of Chicago the general's brother, and Miss May Pershing and Mrs. Bessie Butler, of Lincoln, Neb., his two sisters, will gather at the former Pershing home during the general's stay.

The reception will not be without a military side. Decorated heroes of Missouri will form an honor guard. Adjutant General H. C. Clark of Missouri will have charge of the military reception.

Governor Frederick D. Gardner will deliver an address at the celebration and other state and national officials have been invited to attend.

Among old acquaintances who will greet General Pershing are "Aunt" Susan Hewett, who made pies for him when he romped barefoot around the countryside and Aunt" Louisa Warren(who claims to have been present when the future military leader was born in a railroad section house several miles from here. Both are negroes.

FORMER RESIDENT OF BLUFFS DIES IN CHICAGO

Mrs. Mary Krebs Passes Away at Her Home Tuesday — Other News Notes of Bluffs and Vicinity.

Bluffs, Sept. 13.—Mrs. Helen Augustine received the sad news of the death of Mrs. Mary Krebs which occurred at her home in Chicago at 11 o'clock Tuesday of heart failure. Mrs. Krebbs was formerly Miss Marie Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Allen, former residents of Bluffs but for the past few years of Chicago.

Funeral services were held in Chicago but further particulars have not reached us. Deceased is survived by her husband, one son, Carl, aged 10 years and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Allen, one sister, Mrs. Lila Sarsfield, Springfield, and one brother, Thurman Allen of Chicago.

The remains of Charles T. Chance of Springfield who was struck and instantly killed by a freight car in the Wabash yards of that city at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening while conversing with his son Charles, Jr., will arrive on No. 9 Saturday and will be taken to the M. P. church where the funeral service will be held. Rev. E. J. Rees will have charge of the service. Deceased was about 70 years of age and is the son of the late Mrs. William Chance one-fourth mile north of Bluffs. For a number of years he has resided in Springfield. Besides his widow, he is survived by one son, Charles, Jr., of Springfield. One daughter, Mrs. Bertha Claypool, has preceded him in death.

Class No. 6 of the M. P. Sunday school gave a luncheon at the home of Mrs. E. D. Beird Wednesday evening from 5 until 8 o'clock. Besides the splendid social hours enjoyed by those present about $40 was netted by the class.

Rev. E. J. Rees has returned from Weldon, near Bloomington, where he has been in attendance at the M. P. conference which convened in that city. Rev. Rees has again been called to this charge without a single dissenting vote which bespeaks the high esteem in which he is held by his parishoners.

Eugene Shore returned from the Wabash hospital in Decatur on Thursday where he has been combatting the flu for the past few days. He was accompanied home by Mrs. E. A. Shore and Mrs. Horace Arnold.

MAVERICKS

Instead of asking for a six hour day and a five day week why don't the coal miners quit working entirely and let somebody else dig the coal?

Not wishing anybody bad luck but here's hoping for an open winter.

Wilson talks in St. Louis, says a Decatur Review headline. That is no news. He talks every place else also.

The dispatches tell us that General Pershing's horse, "Kidron," must remain in quarantine for five months while a corps of veterinarians watch him for appearance of any disease he might have contracted abroad. No wonder it costs so much to run the government when a lot of horse doctors sit down to watch a horse for five months that apparently is in the best of health.

President Wilson said before he started out on his speaking tour that he did not intend making any attack on his opponents. We presume that the president considers calling opponents of the league "contemptible quitters" is paying them a compliment.

After reading a list of salaries being taken down by people connected with the railroad administration we are surprised that the deficit the past few years has not been even more than announced.

Senator Johnson seems to be calling a spade a spade in his speeches against the league of nations. Judging from his reception the people are in accord with what he says.

As a predictor we fear that Senator Hitchcock is going to land in the same class as W. J. Bryan's presidential campaign managers.

Traffic cops promise to become as numerous in Jacksonville before long as insurance agents.

Dispatches tell us that Secretary Lansing would not talk about his alleged statements in regard to the League of Nations. The dispatch said he had gone fishing. Probably he has joined Ole Hanson, Seattle's former mayor.

Just about the time we get the railroad shopmen strike settled, the steel workers vote to strike. But we are not in need of any steel at present.

They say it costs $1,000 per room nowadays to build a house. At that price we couldn't even start one room.

Well, the world's series will soon be settled.

Then the football season will start.

That should make business good for the doctors.

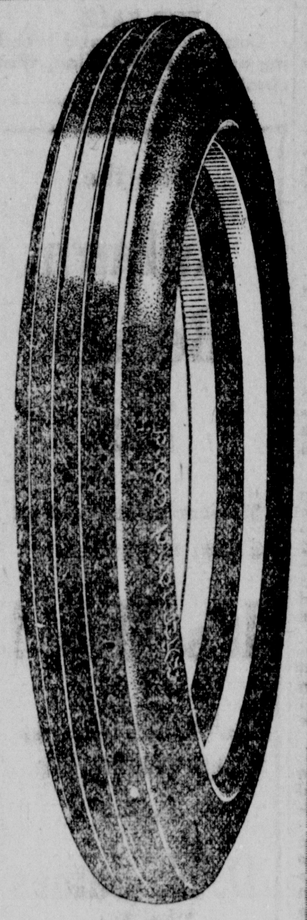

Here's a tip for the bettor on the world's series.

Keep your money in your pocket.

Diamond 'All Black' Cord Tires

8000 Miles

Diamond "All Black" Cord Tires are elegant equipment for the finest cars. But their real bid for your consideration is because of the money they can save you. Their construction gives you a tire capable of big mileage under severe conditions. Not made of layers of fabric, but of sturdy cable cords, each cord rubber covered and rubber impregnated. Given a far greater strength than tires ever had before, these cords—literally saturated with rubbery cushion—are so sinewy, so resilent that internal friction—burning out inside—the greatest destroyer of ordinary tires—has been effectually reduced.

Small wonder Diamond "All Black" Cords cut gasoline bills, relieve motor, coast farther and climb hills easier.

With a slightly higher investment at the start, they finish by saving you a substantial sum on tire and car upkeep.

Dress your car up with a Diamond "All Black" Cords. Forget your tire troubles and know what it is to ride in comfort. Cut your gasoline bills and make an all-round saving with these big- sinewy tires.

THIS CITY TO HAVE CANDY MANUFACTORY

Machines Being Installed Ready About October First

Princess Candy Company to Manufacture Candy on Large Scale—Five Modern Machines Being Installed — Product Known as "Blue Label" Brand — Will Manufacture High Grade Candy of All Kinds — Specialize on Popular 5c and 10c Candy Bars — Particular Attention Given Various Hard Candies and Christmas Candy in Season — Good News to Jobbers and Retailers.

The Princess Candy Company, located on the South Side of the Square, announces that it will enter the manufacturing field on a large scale and expects to be in full operation by October 1st.

The entire second floor of their building is being fitted up with modern machinery and preparations being made to handle their various high grade products in a most expeditious manner.

The principal machines being installed are a Candy Molder, Cream Beater, Nougat Cutter and Nougat Beater. As an example of the rapidity and capacity of these machines, the Cream Beater will handle one hundred pounds of cream each fifteen minutes. The Nougat Cutter has a capacity of 10,000 pieces every eight hours, and the Nougat Beater will keep pace with the demand.

The Princess Company will specialize in Chocolate Nougat Bars, Nougat Wonder, Chocolate Cocoanut Bars, Nutty Sundae, Peanut Bar and Morning Star brands, the universally popular 5c and 10c candy bars. They will also continue the manufacture of their famous line of high grade chocolates, and will make a complete line of so-called varieties of hard candy and holiday candies in season.

Skilled candy makers have been engaged for every phase of the work, and in point of quality and varieties of candy turned out Jacksonville's new enterprise will compare favorably with the best in the country. As the business grows, as naturally it will, additions will be made.

The Princess Candy Company was formed early in the spring of 1916 by Christos L. Geneatos and Thomas Cally, two well known and experienced candy men of this city. The Kirby three-story-with-basement building on the south side of the square was secured by them, fitted out in an ideal manner and doors opened to the public April 8, 1916. Success attended the venture from the start. Shortly afterward the company began the manufacture of candy on a moderate scale intending soon to install a full line of machinery, but the advent of the war with its curtailment of sugar and the uncertain labor conditions, made postponement necessary. However, the company's superior product has become well and favorably known to jobbers throughout the state who will be glad to know of the new plans as announced herein.

On or about October 1st an invitation will be extended to the public generally to call and inspect the enlarged and well equipped plant and see how the various favored sweets are made.

MAN-O-WAR WINS FUTURITY

New York, Sept. 13.—Samuel D. Riddle's chestnut cold Man-o-War, by Fair Play Mauhaba won the classic futurity over the six furlong straightaway course at Belmont park today in 1:11 3-5.

Harry Payne Whitney's Whiskbrook colt John P. Grier, nished second, three lengths behind the winner, and five lengths in front of Samuel C. Hildreth's Dominque which got third money.

Running down the middle of the track with Jockey Loftus steering him straight without urging him, Man-o-War won easily and proved conclusively that he is the two year old champion of the year.

Today's winner should have a clean slate for 1919, but thru the mistakes of Jockey Loftus, Man-o-War suffered defeat at Saratoga last month by Upset in the Sanford memorial.

With the possible exception of the late John R. Keene's Colon, horsemen declared that Man-o-War was better than any horse that ever won the classic which first was run in 1886.

J. W. Johnson of Ashland spent Saturday in the city on business.

FANS, IT WILL BE GREAT GAME TODAY

Pekin Combinations Will Hook Up with Indees This Afternoon—Both Teams Out to Win—A Great Battle Should Be the Result.

What promises to be the best game of ball seen at the South Side park this season will be that between the Pekin Combinations and the Independents this afternoon.

The teams have tied one game and the game a week ago resulted in a victory for the Combinations by a score of 4 to 1. The Indees will try hard to even the count today and the visitors will try just as hard to make it two in thier favor.

Manager Smith will send his same lineup of a week ago into the game and Padgett probably wil be on the mound. Padgett pitched one of the poorest games last Sunday we have seen him pitch this season. He is a good pitcher with lots of stuff and if he is going good should have no trouble in reversing the decision of a week ago.

Claude will work for the Combinations and a better pitcher has not been seen on the local mound. He had everything last Sunday and we have yet to see him pitch a bad game. However, games like he pitched last Sunday are few and far between. Unless he is going just as good the Indees will get to him for some runs.

One thing is sure the Indees must hit better than they did last Sunday in order to win. We believe they will do just that thing. Ruble and Mahan were boh off in their hitting last Sunday. However, they are due to get their batting eye back and if they do you can look for some clouting. Play will be called promptly at 2:30 o'clock. The lineup:

Commies—White, rf; Ballsinger, ss; Clay, 3b; Callahan, c; Clark, cf; Bennett, 1b; Howell, 2b; Dittmer, lf; Claude, p;

Indees—Briggs, ss; Mahan rf; Ruble, 2b; Shook, cf; Christopher, c; McManus, 3b; Simms, 1b; Riggs, lf; Padgett, White, p.

That Long-Distance Service Every Miller Gives

We pay our respects to the motor car's meter—it is proving that, tire after tire, Miller casings, under like conditions, wear alike. That, tire after tire, they are long-distance runners.

This Miller feat of producing Uniform Tires is much discussed. Of course it requires the choicest rubber and fabric. But more than that, the workers must be trained to build alike.

That is what the Miller factory has accomplished. And that is why we feature Miller Tires. By giving you exceptional mileage, we know we can earn your trade.

IN THE RAILWAY WORLD

National Rail Drive is on for Safety First

S. U. Rhymer, superintendent of telegraph and signal engineer of the Chicago & Alton, is one with the first bulletin to employes in relation to the national drive in behalf of "Safety First" to be lanched in October, Mr. Rhymer says:

"In line with Mr. Frederick's safety bulletin, No. 43, the greatest safety drive ever undertaken will commence at 12:01 a. m., October 18th and be carried on for a period of two weeks. Now is the time to lay the foundation and prepare for this great drive, by getting our work in the very best of condition and keeping it that way, having in mind at all times the safety of others as well as ourselves. I would like to call your attention to the fact that the telegraph and telephones are the eyes and ears of the railroad and to pay strict attention to this part of your work and perform it well, whether it be repair work, telegraphing, switchboard or clerical work, will go a long way towards reducing accidents. I wish also to call your attention to the fact that all automatic signals, interlocking plants, crossing bells, pipe connected derails, high switch signals, crossing gates and train order signals, in fact, everything in the signal department, are safety devices and no greater safety work can be done than to put forth your very best condition and keeping them that way. We now have more than five weeks to prepare ourselves for this great drive and by co-operation and strict attention to our respective duties, we should come thru with a 100 per cent record. Will you all please give me your heartiest support in this nation-wide drive?

Yesterday was pay day on the Alton.

The derailment of eighteen cars of Wabash freight train, No. 94, at Monticello Thursday night blocked both main tracks and seriously disorganized passenger traffic. The wreck occurred at 11:30 and it was necessary to detour all trains from that time on till noon Friday. Trains 17 and 18 were detoured by way of the main line of the Illinois Central from Gibson City thru Clinton. Train No. 54, the local passenger train for Chicago leaving Decatur 6:15 Friday morning was sent out by way of the Champaign branch of the Illinois Central thru Oreana, Argenta and Cisco to Monticello. The north bound main was cleared in time for No. 14 leaving Decatur at 11:40 Friday morning and the other main train, it was reported would be clear in a short time.

The wreck, due to a broken air hose and a sectional collision, was one of the worst pile ups the Wabash has had in many months. The wrecker was sent out from Decatur and it arrivad on the job at 3:30, the wreck crew working all night. Fortunately there were few of the derailed cars loaded with high class freight. There was one car of flour, one of hides one of baled rags, eight cars of lumber, a car of coal and several empty cars. Many of the cars were badly broken up.

The local C., P. & St. L. freight engine and crew was delayed more than an hour yesterday afternon by the derailment of a freight car on the track just west of the Alton passenger station. The car was heavily loaded with flour and it was with difficulty that if was placed on the track by the aid of Johnson frogs.

Alton trains will not exceed twenty miles an hour thru the interlocker at Henry street, Alton.

Borrow Two Engines.

The Chicago & Alton has borrowed two engines from the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis to help out during the present rush of freight traffic. The two engines are the 69 and 71. Engineer Carlson is handling one and Engineer Kelasall the other. Both are being used on the Peoria line, the 71 handling the local, while the 69 is handling a pool run. It is likely that an additional pool run will be necessary between Peoria and Girard during the remainder of the fall and winter and the two borrowed engines will come in good play, enabling the Alton to release two of their larger type of engines for the main line drags.

Roadmaster J. B. McMillan of the southern division of the Chicago & Alton has turned over to the operating department five miles of second main track, extending from Bierd to Rinaker. The new track is to be used as a south-bound main and will be a great relief to traffic congestion which has been so acute in the vicinity of Carlinville since the numerous mines were opened there. At the present time, the double track on the southern division ends at Nilwood and commences again at Godfrey. It has been the ambition of W. G .Bierd, federal manager of the Alton, to add second main all the way between Nilwood and Godfrey, but lack of finances has prevented. There is a gap of five miles between Nilwood and Bierd which may be completed next year, if all goes well. The most urgent need was that between Bierd and Rinaker and this has now been completed. For the present, only second and third class and extra freight trains will use the new second main, and the speed is to be restricted to twenty miles an hour. As soon as the telegraph office is opened at Bierd, to be arranged for in the near future, there will be more extended use of the new main. It is not expected that passenger trains will use the new second main before next spring, as it is desired to have the ballast thoroly settled.

Railroad men say that travel on passenger trains just now is a night mare on account of the dust. From the rear of a train one can not see two car lengths because of the dust. The only way to keep passengers from smothering from the dust is to keep all windows closed and then they almost smother from the heat. Even with the windows closed the dust creeps in thru every crevice until passengers are covered with it.

The Wabash paymaster arrived in Decatur Thursday with a big bundle of real pay checks. The last time he came he brought with him merely the ghosts of pay checks. This last visit followed the strike which whittled down pay checks till they were not worth much more than the beautiful high priced paper on which they are written.

Mishap Near Manchester.

An extra west, Conductor Fiale, Engineer Archie Brown, met with a small mishap Thursday noon at a point two miles north of Manchester. New steel is being laid in that vicinity and the 605 was derailed at that point. It was necessary for the crew of No. 117 to leave their train and help derail the engine. No. 14 was delayed a half hour; No. 17 and No. 31 an hour and the extra about three hours as a result of the mishap. There was no damage to equipment or track, to speak of.

The office building at the Wabash roundhouse at Decatur has been condemned by that city's building department. The structure will have to be rebuilt or extensively repaired. Merely a verbal notice has been served on Master Mechanic Harry Etinger but this is regarded as sufficient.

This building is one of the oldest Wabash buildings in Decatur. It was the general headquarters of the Wabash car department during the long period in which M. M. Martin was superintendent of that department. The general offices of the department occupied the second floor and the general foreman of the Decatur shops with his staff of clerks occupied the first floor. The building probably was erected shortly after the removal of the car shops to Decatur which was approixmately forty years ago.

While the headquarters of the car department was in Decatur the headquarters of the locomotive department was at Springfield. These two departments were consolidated under one head with the general offices at Springfield until the building of the new shops in Decatur. The building of the new round house followed and the old car department buildings became roundhouse shops and offices. The office building is now probably the only one remaining.

The entire ground about the round house and shops has been filled in until it is up to the sills of the office building. The sills have rotted away and the building is both unsanitary and unsafe.

Mr. Harding was formerly of the Indiana University, and is the author of several texts on Medieval and Modern History and is an acknowledged expert in these subjects. The Bolton-Hart American History maps have also been added. These are published jointly by Mr. Herbert Eugene Bolton of University of California and authority on Spanish American History, and Albert Bushnell Hart of Harvard University. Professor Hart is well known to students of American History. These maps not only show political and historical development, but also economic and saciological data. Besides the maps an extensive addition to the reference library has also been made on history, sociology, economics, and present reconstruction problems. This equipment will add materially to the efficiency and pleasure of the work in the Department of History.

The Department of English has added a course which will be of special interest to those planning to take a course in Journalism. For this work, Miss Compton, the head of the English Department has received a number of additional text and reference books which will be kept in the library for the students who are in this new course.

The other departments will all register in the library.

The Greetings staff arrived Saturday morning and are planning their work, with the idea of getting out an early copy of the College Greetings. The Y. W. C. A. committee for the meeting of new students, has also arrived and everything is in readiness to take care of the incoming students.

President and Mrs. Harker entertained the faculty and trustees informally Saturday evening at six o'clock on the College campus. The new members of the faculty thus had an opportunity to get acquainted with those already here. Everyone had a most enjoyable time.

The first Chapel will be held Wednesday morning at nine o'clock. All friends and former students are cordially invited to be present as the exercises will be unusually attractive.

Many visitors have been at the college lately. On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Hammond of Taylorville were here in regard to the work which their daughter, Miss Dorothy, is to carry the coming school year. Mrs. Hammond was formerly a Miss Knotts and graduated in the class of '86. Mrs. J. R. Postlewaite of Roodhouse and her daughter, Miss Edna, were at the college arranging for Music for Miss Postlewaite for the coming semester. She will study with Mrs. Colean and probably will carry other music courses during the school year.

The swimming pool is being filled and made ready for the opening of the school year. Miss Stanwood is planning definitely on some especially good courses in Physical Training, among them being the Normal School work which will prepare young women for responsible positions in this line of activity.

HIGH PRICES PREVAIL ON SATURDAY'S MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Highest prices of the week were made in the course of today's short but animated session of the stock market extensive buying and considerable short covering accompanying the more encouraging labor outlook.

In a few instances the day's maximum quotations were the best in many weeks while Baldwin Locomotive, one of the leaders, was at the year's highest.

Equipments, oils, steels and the various industrials affiliated with those issues contributed to the day's broad dealings but rails remained in the background until shortly before the close when Pacific and several low priced issues became active and strong.

U. S. Steel was slightly more than a point over its best but forfeited a small fraction. Total sales amounted to 500,000 shares.

A moderate decrease in actual loans and a very substantial gain in excess reserves were the chief features of the bank statement together with an increase in demand deposits amounting to almost $170,000,000.

Trading in bonds was fairly large with general steadiness in active issues, including the liberty group. Total sales (par value) aggregated $6,750,000.

MEET PEACE CONDITION READJUSTMENT TO

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Downward readjustment of values to meet new crop and peace conditions made rapid progress today in the corn market. Demand was lacking except for profit-taking shorts. Prises closed heavy, 2⅞c to 10c net lower with September $1.35 to $1.35½ and December $1.19⅜ to $1.19⅝. Oats finished 2¾c to 3½ off, and provisions varying from 52c decline to 12c advance.

Liquidation on the part of holders of corn was evident from the outset. September delivery, representing what remains of last year's crop, was especially weak but most of the trading took place in the new crop months, December and May. Before the end of the day September showed a decline of 62c a bushel since July 10, whereas the extreme setback of deferred deliveries was 45c to 54c. Nevertheless, both December and May today touched the lowest level yet this season.

Oats like corn fell to new low record prices for the season.

Provisions reflected grain weakness.

MY HEAD!

When the head feels thick or aches, when one feels all out-of-sorts—perhaps a coated tongue—it is the signal that poisons are accumulating in the system, and should be cleaned out at once.

Auto-intoxication can be best ascribed to our own neglect or carelessness. When the organs fail in the discharge of their duties the putrefactive germs set in and generate toxins—actual poisons which fill one's own body.

Sleepiness after meals, flushing of the face, extreme lassitude, biliousness, dizziness, sick headache, acidity of the stomach, heartburn, offensive breath, anemia, loss of weight and muscular power, decrease of vitality or lowering of resistance to infectious diseases, disturbance of the eye, dyspepsia, indigestion, gastritis, many forms of catarrh, asthma, ear affections and allied ailments result from auto-intoxication or self-poisoning.

Take castor oil, or procure at the drug store, a pleasant vegetable laxative, called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, composed of May-apple, aloes and jalap.
